TN The temperature of the 10 soup is extremely hot. 11
 12 observer watched the steam rise
 13 from the bowl. He held a spoonful
 14 over the bowl, paused and then

MN Wondering if he is still 13 slurped it. He sniffled twice. He 14 congested/allergies sniffing 14 repeated the same movements. Then 15 and eating soup for dinner 15 he licked the back of the spoon. He

MN Possibly might need to 17 rested it in the bowl. It clanked hit 18 foodshop ~ no more food in 18 took another spoonful and then sniffled. He 19 the kitchen ~ soup only 19 readjusted his legs, crossing his 20 thing to make 20 right leg over his left leg, still rest-
 21 ing his feet still on the glass coffee table.

MN: I'll have to ask him if 22 He looked at the observer, then back 23 he liked it, so I can buy 23 at the ~~observer~~ television. He 24 more. 24 scratched his left leg with his right
 25 hand. He readjusted his left right

TN: Bowl must still be hot 26 on the bowl. He ~~scrapped~~ the bowl 27 even though there is not 27 with the spoon still watching T.V.
 28 much soup left in it. 28 He wiped his nose, still holding the 29 spoon. This spoonful was heaping filled
